📍 Calangianus, Sardegna

San Leonardo is a locality located in the countryside of the Municipality of Calangianus, a short distance from Lake Liscia and totally immersed in cork oak woods and vast vineyards of Vermentino grapes.

In this magical scenario of the Gallura hinterland, a project was born in 2017 that was desired and studied in detail by the clients. The residence is totally conceived in a modern key, with particular attention to the use of the best local materials and the use of the most recent construction technologies with high standards of environmental sustainability.
