Villa Aidan

📍 Porto Rafael, Sardegna

The property rests on a granite promontory, in a panoramic position of evocative beauty. It was born from a great signature of modern architecture, which perfectly combines the linearity of the project and its essential forms with the grandeur of the nature that hosts it. The swimming pool, of rigorous geometric shape, is inserted in the well-kept garden and allows total privacy during moments of relaxation.

The villa has a living and dining room, kitchen, and courtesy bathroom. The sleeping area houses three ensuite bedrooms, of which: a double bedroom and a twin bedroom with two single beds that can be joined together, in the basement a bedroom with two single beds.
