

Unique hills with sea views #1270

Recently built real estate complex with particular attention to privacy and tranquility.

The distribution of the six residential units on various levels creates a unique atmosphere, while the private swimming pools and sunbathing areas offer the opportunity to enjoy the sunny climate and relax in total privacy. The flexibility in the number of bedrooms, from three to five, and the possibility of adding a staff bedroom with bathroom on request, demonstrate a design that pays attention to individual needs.

The spacious and well-designed interiors, together with the presence of separate kitchens and welcoming living areas, underline the attention to detail and the desire to create an ideal space for entertaining guests or spending family moments.

The presence of air conditioning in every room, WiFi connection and two uncovered parking spaces for each unit highlight a commitment to maximum comfort and practicality for guests. Furthermore, the proximity to all the beaches

 5

 5

 200 m²