

Villa Bianca

📍 Porto Rotondo, Sardegna

A new and ultra-modern “diffused villa” has been created through the meticulous and complete restoration of a historic village residence, originally designed by architect Gamondi, a renowned figure of his time.

Set within an oasis of centuries-old plants and majestic monoliths, inside a private park of over 5,000 sqm, the property is located within the prestigious Porto Rotondo consortium. Despite being just 500 metres from the main piazza and all essential services, it enjoys absolute privacy and total seclusion.

Its elevated position offers breathtaking panoramic views stretching from the Gulf of Cugnana to Mortorio, passing
